BUILD YOUR JEWISH LEGACY

Will your planned gift or bequest have the power to ensure the Jewish future?

More than 100 volunteers are helping donors articulate their goals and walking them through the easy steps that will lead to an enduring Jewish legacy. This is a very personal process. It takes great passion to ask supporters to give a bequest; it takes great commitment from donors to make that promise. More than 300 individuals have said yes in the past year, providing a combined total of $20 million for endowments.

Twenty-seven of our Jewish community's schools, synagogues, and organizations are participating in Live On, learning how to build endowment through bequests. Please respond generously when they call you.
